

Quaker Quest

a spiritual path for our time that is simple, radical, and contemporary

A series of presentations and discussions on faith, spirituality in our time, and Quakerism.

Quest sessions are being presented by Evanston Friends Meeting, 1010 Greenleaf Street, Evanston IL.
Each session is 2 hours and includes an introduction to unprogrammed Quaker worship.

Everyone is welcome. Guests are invited to arrive 15-30 minutes before the start of each session to have a cup of coffee, get acquainted, and settled. Refreshments will be available as each session opens and concludes. Advance reservations are not necessary, and there is no charge. Childcare will be provided.

Content: Each session will include three personal presentations and a half-hour Quaker-style worship. There will also be small group break-outs sessions and time for questions and answers.

Schedule: You will have two opportunities to hear the presentations. Each session will be held on a Saturday morning in February and March, and again on a Sunday afternoon in March and April. We hope you will attend as many sessions as you can.

Sessions: Come early for coffee and refreshments! Each session will start promptly on the hour.
